(GOLDILOCKS AND THE THREE BEARS)

I always loved science. Everyone calls me Scientist Stephanie. My best friend, Bella, hates science, so we were always partners. Today we were making volcanoes. I was having so much fun. But then Bella said, "Mrs. Brown I don't feel good." "Ok, Bella you can go to the nurse, and Stephanie you may go join Alex and Annie." So of course I had no choice but to join Alex and Annie. Now if you don't know Alex and Annie they are the jerks of the school. Actually, Annie used to be my friend but then Alex moved here and I am invisible unless they are picking on me. As I walked up they said, "Aw, your little friend not there for you nerd." Annie took my volcano and swapped it with theirs then Alex smashed their volcano. Then, Annie started crying. "Stephanie smashed our volcano!" Mrs. Brown looked at me and said, "Stephanie, you will no longer be in the Winter Concert. This is unacceptable. Annie, Alex, you can have Stephanie's volcano." Then, Nurse Minnie rushed in and said, Bella has an infection. She'll miss school for the next 3 weeks. Mrs. Brown said that it was OK. I hated them. But at least I got to work alone. I never really liked the winter concert. Also, my mom has work so she can't come. FYI: I only lived with my mom.

It was recess. I went to Sally. My other friend. "I saw what happened." "I don't care. Their Jerks. Everyone knows that." "Except the teachers." "Yep! They miss out on everything. I mean Everything!" "Like the time when cute erasers were trending!" "And the time when Starbucks coffee shaped pencil boxes were trending!" "I still have mine." "Me to. But I'm still going to miss those memori..." Recess was over. "I'll tell you later."

School was OUT!!!! I ran to Sally. "What were you going to tell me?" "That i'm going to miss you all and my memories here." "Why?" "I forgot to tell you. I'm moving." "WHAT!" was my last word to her today.

I was in my room when my mom called. "DINNER!" I ran down stairs. I smelled mac'n'cheese in the air. I went to the refrigerator and got my...

SUPER SODA! "How was your day?" "Annie and Alex." "Did they make you have a bad day?" I nodded my head. She gave me a hug. "I can't go to the winter concert." "I feel bad for you. I'll text her." 'N...' To late. She went away.

It was the next day. Annie and Alex were staring at me angrily. They got the text. The teacher came and called me over. Annie and Alex had a smile form on there faces. I immediately knew something was bad.

It wasn't exactly bad. But it still was. I was in the concert again. When I went out, I saw guilty frowning faces on Annie and Alex. I knew what they did.

one was there. I was a bit hungry, so I took a bowl of mac and cheese. It was too cold. Then I ate another bowl and it was too hot. After that I got a bowl that was just right. Then, I got tired so I went to sleep.

The next thing you know I hear dogs barking. I wake up and turn into a ball. I saw 3 dogs. 3 dogs I tell you. They were all barking ferociously. Then I hear whimpers. I look up and see 3 cute puppies. I looked around and saw whips, chains and everything that you can think of to hurt a dog. There was a sad picture. I knew what I should do. I put them on leashes. "I'll bri..." BLEEP BLOP BLOP BLEEP BLOP BLOP. I looked around and saw a phone vibrating. I picked it up and it said that the dog's owner was dead. My plan was working! "Let's go to my house."

I explained everything to my mother. She told me I shouldn't have ran off, but it paid off. My mom texted that I was moving and that we were going to keep the puppies. I started packing excitedly that I finished packing quickly. I would get to leave Annie and Alex!

I got to my new home. It felt good to be there. I went inside and ran to my room. It looked like my old room, but better. I ran downstairs and looked at my neighbors and my house number. Mine was 4202. My neighbors were 4201 and 4203. 4201, 4202, 4203, 4201, 4202, 4203. The numbers just kept whirling in my head. It sounded familiar. I went to my neighbors. Then I saw them... BELLA AND SALLY!!!!!!!!!! We hugged and talked. "I moved here!" "That's awesome!" "I know! I have 3 dogs. (dogs walk up) Their names are Cookie, Creamy and Cotton." "They're so cute." "I cutely agree. Awwwwwww." "Wh..." "Bella's is 4203 and mine is 4201." "You fi..." "Nished your sentence." We giggled. "We should go to each other's homes and do lots of sleepovers!"
