

Goldilocks and The 3 horses (By;Ayesha. M)

I was in my room reading a book all by myself, since my parents were on a vacation to Hawaii.I was really scared most of the time.We also didn't have neighbors .All we had was a farm near my house, a couple minutes away.It had 3

horses one was still a horse that was like not that big or not that small,the next one was large he looked like he was the medium horses dad.And there was one more horse who was a little smaller than the dad.who I'm guessing is the mom.Since my parents are not here I really want to go to the farm,I always wanted to go there but my parents always say no they make me study most of the day. I guess it wouldn't hurt if I quickly checked the farm. And besides it's only a few minutes away I can walk there in a jiffy. WOW!

I barely get to go outside, it's beautiful. I should do this EVERYDAY! As I was walking I could already see the barn. I ran as fast as I could possibly go. The horse that was medium was SOOO cute! I wanted to go hug him SO bad. Then a lady came to me and asked me "Do you plan on riding that horse"? In a nice soft voice." I said "Ummm

No thanks." She said "As you wish dear." Then I thought in my head for a moment. I may never get this chance when my parents come back tomorrow. I quickly went to the lady before she walked away and said "Actually I do want to try to ride a horse," "Yay" she said.

Well let's get started. I watched as she put the saddle on the female horse, I'm guessing. She told me how to get on the horse. I stumbled getting on the horse a little so she helped me. She told me what to do and how to ride a horse properly, I was getting a bit scared and nervous. I tried riding the first horse he was too big the second horse was to uncomfy the third horse was just right. Once I got the hang of it I had so much FUN!! It was like THE BEST THING I EVER DID. Then I looked at my watch it was almost 8:00 I had to go back home and I was starving. But I was sad because I would probably never get to do this again. But at least my parents are coming home tomorrow I said softly. I hugged my horse and said "Thank you" to the lady and headed back home.

When I reached home, I made myself a salad and went on the couch to watch some TV. At around 10:00 I went to bed. The next morning I woke up and saw my parents in the living room. They kissed and hugged me and asked what I did most of the time? I said Nothing in a suspicious voice and winked the other way.
