

Goldilocks and the 3 Hares

(An adaptation of Goldilocks and the 3 Bears)

Ben S.

Once upon a time there was a small family. They had one kind momma, one strong papa, and one sweet little girl named Goldilocks. They lived deep in the woods of Berryville where the sun never shines. It was nearing winter and there was a family of hungry, hoppy, happy, and hairy hares living around them. Goldilocks's awesome family was going to Disneyland for the week. The Hares were very intelligent and as soon as Goldilocks left the hares moved in. There were also 3 hares. A weak mommy, a weaker daddy, and the weakest little boy.

Day one: At the start the hares were confused. Where is the dirt, and the carrots in the ground? The hares had never been into a human house before. They went back to their hole in the ground, went to the internet, and looked up a human home. The next day they came back to the home and knew everything. First, they went to the fridge. There were 3 big carrots. The daddy took the big one the mommy to the other big one and the kid took the small one. Then they took the rest of the food in the fridge and scarfed it down like it was nothing. No confusions yet. They had not explored the whole house yet and it was getting late so they went back to there little home in the ground.

Day 3: The hares slept in an extra day because they were getting tired. Hibernation time is coming and they were getting very tired. They left early at 8:00am and it was starting to snow. They were getting hungry plus their home was getting destroyed by the harsh weather.

Human Home

They got to the human home at 10:00am, then, the daddy hare said, “we should search the bottom layer of the house now.” Mommy hare and the little hare agree to the search the bottom layer and were surprised to see a big rectangular thing. They found a small rectangular thing and turned the big rectangle thing on. They argued what to watch for an hour. Finally, everyone agreed on Dora. They watched Dora the whole day. After they watched Dora they broke the T.V. because it went to commercial break. They sprinted back to their home in the ground and when they got there it is destroyed so they built a small pile of sticks to sleep in for the night.

Day 6: The hares were getting more and more tired by the minute. They slept for 3 whole days. They dragged themselves over to the human house. They turned the bright lights on and immediately got to exploring the house. They went upstairs and checked out the nice cozy beds. They sat on them a minute but then immediately got up. They explored the closets, bathroom, and more. Then at 6:00 pm they heard a click. It was Goldilocks and her parents. The hares not knowing what to do flipped the beds and hid in the closet. Goldilocks's family went to their nice blue fridge.

"AA ALL OF THE FOOD IS GONE", screamed Papa.

Then they sprinted like a lightning bolt down stairs. "AA", screamed mama as she saw the broken TV.

Then Goldilocks rushed upstairs. All the cozy beds were flipped over. Goldilocks screamed, "AA THE BEDS ARE FLIPPED." Then Goldilocks checked the closet and fainted at the sight of hares in her closet. The hares tried to get away but got stopped by papa. He grabbed a broom and started whacking the hares repeatedly.

"This is for the food. This is for the TV. This is for the beds. And this is for making my daughter faint" yelled papa. With that they went flying out the window and into the freezing cold snow. The End.
