

Buzz Lightyear and Lego Batman

By: Eli W.

Introduction:

As we know, Buzz Lightyear and Lego Batman are characters most of our world know about. These two figures are very popular to this very day in books, movies, and more. Today, I will compare these characters about appearance, actions, motives, personality, and their fighting styles. There also may be a conclusion at the end so don't be surprised if there is one! Now, let's get on with this article.

Appearance

So as we know, Lego Batman is a black masked dude with a black and some yellow costume with a belt and his logo; the Bat sign. Buzz Lightyear is a green, gray, and purple toy with a clear helmet on his purple head. He also has wings attached to his back in case he needs to fly. Buzz has a astronaut suit-like thing that acts like his armor. Okay, let's move on to the next topic.

Actions

Lego Batman likes to hide in the shadows until a criminal comes and then he pounces (and usually captures the criminal). When Lego Batman is not catching crime he is usually at his mansion as Bruce Wayne talking with his butler Alfred. Buzz Lightyear just likes to do reckless stuff like jumping on a car that got Woody. Yeah, that is pretty much it.

Motives

Batman's motive is to save people. He does that since when he was young, his parents were getting robbed and his father fought back but both of them died. Batman wants to be able to save people and fight crime since his parents died because of that. Buzz Lightyear's motive is saving his friends. He does that because he cares about them.

Personality

Lego Batman's personality is quiet. He prefers to stay in the shadows waiting for crime versus going to fancy parties. Buzz Lightyear's personality is pretty reckless. He likes doing daring things very often.

Fighting-Styles

Batman's fighting style is to stay hidden and then use his gadgets to fight and defeat the criminals. If he has to, he can use hand-to-hand combat. Buzz Lightyear's fighting style is just randomly jumping out of a window and shouting "To infinity and beyond!" Now, let's go on to the conclusion.

Conclusion

Now that we have covered Buzz Lightyear's and Batman's appearance, actions, motives, personality, and their fighting styles you pretty know lots of things about these two characters. That is all I have written so see you later in the movie theaters watching these two great movies.
