

Snowa White: A More Modern Fairy Tale

(An Adaption of Snow White and the Seven Dwarves)

By Lyra B.

Once upon a more modern time, in Little Cottage High School, there was a beautiful but dorky girl. Barely anyone knows she even exists. But Snowa White doesn't really care. She enjoys reading about animals, studying and making sure her room at home is neat and tidy.

On the other hand, Eva Queen is the opposite. She is very beautiful, like Snowa, but popular. Everyone at Little Cottage High School knows her name. She loves that she has a big posse of girls, seven in all, that do her every bidding; Sarah, Emily, Madelyn, Mya, Chrisie, Brianna, and Bethany.

Eva is confident in everything she does. She has a mirror hanging in her locker and whenever she is worried about something, looking into it gives her confidence, except when it comes to talking to Hopper, the Captain of the Basketball team. She gets tongue tied and can't sputter out anything that makes sense when he is nearby.

One day Eva sees Snowa talking to Hopper and gets jealous. No one even knows Snowa, how come he is talking to her? Even looking into her mirror and talking to her posse doesn't make her feel any better. They were laughing and looked so happy together. She begins to come up with a plan to sabotage Snowa White.

Four days later...

At lunch in the cafeteria at Little Cottage High, Snowa, as usual, is sitting alone studying for the big test coming up in English Literature. Hopper sits down beside her and they talk about how hard the test is going to be. They are both worried they are going to fail. Dorky Snowa has never failed a test in her life but Hopper is having a hard time in English. He can't seem to remember the characters in any of the books they are studying.

Enter Eva Queen and her friends, laughing and talking loudly. Instead of sitting far away from Snowa and Hopper, today they decide to sit at the same table. They too are talking about how hard the test is going to be. Eva Queen tells her friends, loud enough for Snowa and Hopper to hear, that luckily she has a cheat sheet with all the answers. After lunch, Eva and her friends leave the table. But sitting under a shiny red apple on the table is a copy of the cheat sheet.

Snowa and Hopper stare at the paper. They are both tempted. This test is going to be hard. But Snowa doesn't want to cheat. She leaves the cheat sheet under the apple and walks away. When no one is looking, Hopper takes the sheet, and a bite out of the apple.

Eva Queen is happy. She knew Snowa White couldn't resist. When she went back to the cafeteria, the cheat sheet was gone. Snowa thinks she is going to pass the test easily but really, all the answers on that sheet were wrong. She is going to fail badly if she doesn't get caught for cheating first. Eva tells her mirror that once Snowa White is caught cheating Hopper won't like the dorky girl anymore. Her plan is working perfectly.

On the day of the test, Snowa is worried. She has studied a lot but this test is going to be hard. She decides to ask Hopper how his studying went because he was really worried too. Strangely, today he seems relaxed and confident. He doesn't seem worried at all. Snowa wonders why. He shows her the cheat sheet and tells her he is going to ace the test. Snowa takes one look at the paper and knows something is wrong. None of the answers match what she studied.

Just then, Eva walks by. She laughs when she sees Snowa holding the paper. Snowa realizes what is going on. Hopper is going to be in big trouble. He is going to fail the test because he took what was meant for her. But is it too late for her to save him?

She realizes she can't do this alone. There is only one hour before the test. Taking a risk she finds the girls in Eva's posse and quickly tells them what Eva has done. They all like Hopper and want to help him. With less than an hour to go, Snowa and the posse of seven teach Hopper all there is to know about War and Peace.

Two days later....

The results of the test are in. Immediately after the tests are given out, Snowa and the posse of seven find Hopper and ask him how he did. He passed! All the girls squeal with joy that their hard work paid off and he passed the test without cheating.

Eva Queen walks by them in the hallway and scowls. Her plan backfired and her mirror had failed her. Now everyone at Little Cottage High School knows Snowa's name.

The End!

