

Max and Eleven Comparison

By Matilda H.

Introduction

In this assignment I will be comparing Max and Eleven from the show Stranger Things. I will be comparing their appearance, personalities, actions, motives and powers. I hope by reading this assignment you will get to know Max and Eleven's similarities and differences.

Appearance

Max and Eleven had very little similarities in appearance. They are both girls and both have curly hair during one season. Max has curly red hair and Eleven has curly short brown hair. They are both the same age and both are caucasian.

Even though Max and Eleven are good friends, they do not look totally alike. Other than being girls, they are different people. Both girls got clothes at the GAP at Starcourt Mall. Both love shopping but Eleven likes dresses and Max likes shorts and shirts. They were different because Max had more of a tomboy look and Eleven had no hair. Even though her hair was short, she was not a tomboy. Max is more of a tomboy because she was always seen riding a skateboard and Eleven did not.

Personality

Eleven and Max have some personality similarities and differences. The first similarity they have is that both of them stood strong when someone in their family died. Eleven's dad got lost in the upside down or is with the Russians, but Eleven thinks he died saving the world. Max's brother died saving Eleven and her friends. In the last episode, someone in both of their family died sacrificing himself. They were both sad but they stayed strong for their friends. Another similarity they have is they are both funny when they are together. They had a sleepover and they both were laughing and having fun. You could tell that they enjoyed each other's company.

The first difference is that Max is more outgoing. Max got in the friend group easily even though some of the other boys did not want her in. She was persistent in making friends. Eleven is not very talkative. Max is talkative and is a little sassy. Eleven was shy in Season 1, she did not like to talk and Max was always talking so much that Will and Mike thought Max was annoying.

Actions/Motives

Max and Eleven have some similarities and differences in their actions and motivations. The first action similarity Max and Eleven have was that they both helped to beat the demogorgon. In season 3 Eleven was attacked by the demogorgon and Max was the first one to pull her legs so she wouldn't get sucked up. Another similarity is that they both spent time together doing things they both liked. Max asked Eleven to have a sleepover and spend the day together and went to the mall and they both loved to do that.

My first difference for actions is that Eleven had a much bigger part saving her friends when she told Billy to save her by telling him memories. Max had a smaller part by throwing fireworks on the demogorgon. Another difference for actions is that Eleven closed the portal to the Upside Down and Max did not but that is because she does not have super powers like Eleven. Max did help get the mind flare out of Will but Eleven did help with the mind flare and closing the portal.

Now time to discuss motives. My first similarity for motives is that Max and Eleven both get motivated by their friends. This started to happen when Max joined the group and Eleven didn't like it at first because she was stealing Mike from her. My next similarity is that they both get motivated by each other. At one of their sleepovers they talk about boys and things they have in common.

My first difference for motives is that Eleven gets her powers by thinking about the things she's gone through and Max does it in a different way. But that is because Eleven has powers.

Powers

Max and Eleven can also be compared in Powers. My first similarity is that Max and Eleven both have the power to do things together. They do a lot of things together since they're friends. If you didn't know Max and Eleven are friends they hang out together a lot in season 3. My difference is that Eleven has telekinesis as her power. Max she can do stuff but she doesn't have a power.

Conclusion

I hope my comparison helped you find out more about Max and Eleven.
