

Dorothy and the Wizard of Oz

By: Shireen S.

Introduction

Hi. Today I will be show telling you the similarities and differences of Dorothy and the Wizard of Oz. I will be telling the appearances, personalities, actions and motives, and background stuff about them.

Appearances

So, Dorothy has a blue and white checkered dress. She is female and has long hair. The Wizard of Oz is green all over. He is male and he has short brown hair.

They are similar because they have brown hair. That is all that I can think of so, yeah.

Personalities

Dorothy is a kind and caring person. She helped the Scarecrow by taking him off of the pole he was attached to. She unrusted the Tinman and she stopped the Lion from attacking Toto.

The Wizard of Oz is a shy person because he never revealed himself until Dorothy and her friends uncovered him.

Actions and Motives

Dorothy untied the Scarecrow from the pole that he was attached to. She did this because she is a hearted person and the Scarecrow asked her kindly. She also unrusted the Tinman because she is a caring person. She also stood out for the Scarecrow and Tinman when the Lion, who soon became their friend, had tossed them into the air.

The Wizard of Oz helped the Scarecrow get a brain, give the Tinman a heart, give the Lion courage, and send Dorothy and Toto back to Kansas because they destroyed the Wicked Witch of the West.

Background Stuff

Dorothy lives on a farm with her Aunt Em and Uncle Henry. She helped out on the farm and lived in a small house. She got to Oz in a tornado.

The Wizard of Oz was a balloonist at a circus.

He got to the land of Oz in a balloon.

They both lived in America and, um that it.
